

Slavica Gajdadzis-Knezhevikj

Prim. Slavica Gajdadzis-Knezhevikj, MD, psychiatrist, is the first generation trained Family and Systemic Psychotherapist in North Macedonia. She is founder and director of the Institute for Family, Marriage and Systemic Practice – ALTERNATIVA in Skopje, which is EFTA TIC full member since 10 years and EAPTI since 2013. Institute Alternativa successfully hosted the 7th TIC Meeting of trainers in Ohrid in 2012 and several international workshops. Slavica has been representing Macedonian NAO in EAP for over 10 years and serves as one of the two EAP TAC experts in Family Therapy in accrediting training Institutes in psychotherapy all over Europe. She is national and international trainer and supervisor in family and systemic therapy over 25 years, working constantly on developing family therapy and systemic ideas and serving as an external examiner for different institutes in the region.

Slavica has been EFTA TIC Board member since 2013 and was appointed Secretary EFTA TIC in February 2015. She has participated in the work of EFTA GB and Board Committees on improving training standards and worked diligently with other GB members on producing a modern, efficient EFTA Statute that would serve the needs of EFTA members. She is reelected in EFTA TIC Board in 2022.
