

Pier Giuseppe DEFILIPPI
(Italy)

Secretary of EFTA-CIM

Psychologist and psychoterapist. Director of Turin's Istituto EMMECI.

For many years he has been working on research, permanent formation and supervision for the professionals of help, with particular attention to the theoretical models of family therapy and of family mediation and to the possible innovative applications.

His professional attention is particulary directed to analogical communication.

His clinical work is oriented to couples' and evolutives problems.

He is interested in history of family therapy.

He was in the SIPPR and CSTERAR board.