

Mony ELKAÏM
(Belgium)

Chair of EFTA-TIC

Mony Elkaïm M.D. is a neuropsychiatrist and psychotherapist. In 1990, with the help of colleagues from the “European Family Therapy Network”, he created E.F.T.A. He chaired the organization from 1990 to 2001.

He is presently the president of the European Association of Psychotherapy (E.A.P.). He is also the director of the Institute for Family and Human Systems Studies in Brussels, a consultant at the Universtiy Hospital Erasmus and Professor at the Free University of Brussels. His many books are widely translated.

He also direct a bi-yearly journal in French on family therapy and a series on psychotherapy for the “Editions du Seuil” in Paris”.