

Kyriaki POLYCHRONIS
(Greece)

Secretary of EFTA-TIC
Member of the coordinating body

She is a psychologist and systemic psychotherapist. She is a Senior Family and Group Therapist, Trainer and Supervisor at the Athenian Institute of Anthropos.

For many years, she has worked therapeutically with families with adolescent members and has developed programs for “creative life designing”.

Her most recent publications, both in English and Greek journals, refer to the experiential group approach to systemic and family therapy training.

As of 2007, she is Co-editor of the European Journal, Human Systems.

She is a Founding Member of EFTA. She was elected to the first Working Party which established EFTA-TIC and, since 2001, she has served on the EFTA-TIC Board as its General Secretary.

Nationally, she is a Founding Member of the Hellenic Association for Systemic Therapy and a former Board Member of the Association of Greek Psychologists.
