

Peter STRATTON
(United Kingdom)

Co-opted member of EFTA-TIC board

Peter Stratton is a Systemic Psychotherapist and psychologist with broad research interests and substantial involvement in statutory processes that affect the provision of psychotherapy. His own research includes development of an outcome measure for families in therapy (the SCORE project); the effects of basing training on concepts of active learning and the dialogical construction of self; the relationships of humour and creativity during psychotherapy; attributional analyses of family causal beliefs and blaming; public attitudes to terrorism by combining attributional coding with metaphor analysis; and fostering practitioner research networks.

Current Positions:

Founding Editor of the journal Human Systems;

Academic and Research Development Officer for the Association for Family Therapy (AFT);

Chair of the UKCP Research Faculty;

Chair of European Family Therapy Association (EFTA) Research Committee;

Chair of Skills for Health ERG mapping research-based competences in systemic family therapy;

Fellow of the BPS and Chartered Practising Psychologist.

Member of EFTA Training Institutes Chamber; & of UKCP Training Standards Committee.